

google sidewiki

what is it?

Google Sidewiki is a browser sidebar that enables users to write reviews and comments about any websites appearing in Google's search results. Everything that anyone chooses to write can be visible to anyone in the general public using the tool. This tool is compatible with Google Chrome, and the Google toolbars for IE 6+ or Firefox 2+.

features

Read/Write One can view other people's Sidewiki entries or contribute comments. Sidewiki is a brand new product, and currently there are no reviews/entries for any of the clients of New Home Feed.

Share Once written, an entry can be shared, and syndicated through one's network on social media sites like Twitter and Facebook.

Google Profiles Sidewiki entries can be viewed from Google profiles.

program policies (from google)

Keep Sidewiki spam and malware free. Spam includes, but is not limited to, unwanted promotional or commercial content, or posts with gibberish such as keyword spamming. We also don't allow the transmission of malware, viruses, or anything that may disrupt the service or harm others.

Speak your mind without being hateful or threatening to others. Lively discussions can happen without posting hateful, threatening, harassing, or bullying content. We encourage you to work out disputes or disagreements on your own. However, in serious or egregious cases, we will take action.

Keep it legal. Don't engage in unlawful activities on this product. If we are notified of unlawful activities, we will take appropriate action, which may include removing access to Sidewiki, your Google account, or reporting you to the appropriate authorities.
